Zadanie 1.

Tekst 1.

Boy: What shall we start with? Geography, Maths or English?

Girl: The Maths homework is the hardest. Let's wait for your brother to help us with it.
What about writing the story for our English class first?

Boy: That will take us an hour, and my brother will be back in 20 minutes. Let's do the Geography quiz instead. It won't take us more than 15 minutes.

Girl: OK, let's start with that and then do the Maths.

Tekst 2.

Man: Have you finally booked your trip, Mary?

Woman: Yes, I did it yesterday, but it wasn't easy. I normally book online, but my computer stopped working.

Man: What did you do then?

Woman: I tried to phone a local travel agency, but I had to wait so long on the line that I just gave up. I decided to go to their office in the centre. It took a lot of time, but it was worth it. There was a special offer that wasn't available online.

Man: Good for you. I have to go now, but I will call you again tomorrow, OK?

Tekst 3.

Boy: Mum, are there any sandwiches left from the journey? I'm hungry.

Mum: Have you looked in the backpack?

Boy: Yes, but I could only find the orange juice which you bought me when we were waiting for our flight.

Mum: So I'm afraid there's no food left. Just give me a minute, I'll call Dad to tell him we've arrived safely. Then we'll go downstairs to the reception desk and I'll ask them to recommend a nice place to eat.

Boy: OK, I'll start unpacking my suitcase then.

Mum: It might be dirty, so don't put it on the bed.

Boy: All right, Mum.

Tekst 4.

Man: Julie, we have to leave now.

Girl: I'm ready, Dad, but I can't find my green scarf.

Man: But you need it. It might be cold in the evening. Maybe you left it at your friend's house yesterday?

Girl: Ah, yes, I did.

Man: So we can get it on the way.

Girl: Oh no, Sarah's away this weekend.

Man: You know what? Why don't you take Mum's scarf instead?

Girl: That's a good idea. I'll go and get it.

Tekst 5.

Okay, everybody! There are lots of famous historical attractions in Rome. One of them is an ancient building called the Colosseum. It's very large. Get into your groups, look at the photos in your textbooks and try to guess how many people could watch events there at the same time. In a few minutes, I'm going to show you a film that will tell us which of you were right.

Zadanie 2.

Wypowiedź 1.

Boy: My best friend, Mike, is completely different from me. I'm a bit shy, but Mike is very sure of himself and always ready for an adventure. Some people are surprised that we've been friends for so long! This summer we're going mountain biking together for a week. I'm looking forward to spending time with Mike. We might be different, but that's what makes our friendship so strong.

Wypowiedź 2.

Girl: Let me tell you a funny story. One day, after PE, I picked up somebody else's bag. I simply thought it was mine. When I opened it during the lunch break, I found sports shoes and a T-shirt in it that didn't belong to me. A few minutes later, a tall girl with an identical bag came up to me, and I realized what had happened. We had a good laugh about it, and since then Sally and I have been best friends.

Wypowiedź 3.

Boy: My best friend, Jack, never lets me down. Once, I had a problem with my bike and I had no idea what to do, so I called Jack. He was on his way to a concert by one of his favourite local bands, but he immediately turned round and came over to fix my bike. Together, we make a great team: he repairs things for me, and when he is preparing a school presentation I always give him a hand.

Wypowiedź 4.

Girl: I love spending time with my best friend, Jane. We go to concerts and play football together. But we eat different food and watch different series on the Internet. I love holidays by the sea, she prefers the mountains. The funny thing is that when I see Jane, it's like looking in a mirror – the same blue eyes and curly hair. Sometimes our teachers even mistake one of us for the other.

How about going to the music festival next weekend?

Zadanie 4.

Woman: Eastwood Rollerblading School, how can I help you?

Boy: Hello, I'd like to have some rollerblading lessons.

Woman: We offer group and individual lessons. Each lesson lasts 30 minutes.

Boy: And how much are the individual lessons?

Woman: The cost of one lesson is £5, but at the moment we also have a special offer: if you pay for a set of 5 lessons, the cost is only £20 instead of £25.

Boy: That's great! What days can I have lessons on?

Woman: We are open from Tuesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m., and we are closed on Mondays. All our lessons are inside the building.

Boy: What about Sundays?

Woman: There are no lessons then, but from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sundays the skate park outside the building is open and you can practise your skills there.

Boy: And I have one more question. Can I have my birthday party in the skate park?

Woman: Sure, we rent out the skate park for birthdays on Sunday afternoons after 2 p.m. and we provide snacks, but if you want drinks or a birthday cake for your guests, you have to bring your own.

Boy: Great! Thanks for the information.
