Girl: My favourite sport? Uhm, I'm not very sporty, so let me think. I sometimes go running and I quite like it, but it's a bit boring. I love spending my summers by the lake where I do a lot of swimming, so that would be my first choice. I also enjoy spending time in the mountains, but when I go climbing it's usually too tiring for me.

Tekst 2.

Man: Hi Maggie, that's a nice song you are listening to. I think I've heard it somewhere before.

Girl: Oh, dad you must know it! It's from one of the best romantic comedies ever: Four Weddings and a Funeral.

Man: Yes, I remember now. In fact, I took your mum to see the film on our first date. We watched it at a small cinema that doesn't exist anymore...

Girl: Really? I thought you went to a rock concert and then to a fancy French restaurant. You told me about that once.

Man: Ah, that was the time I asked your mum to marry me.

Tekst 3.

Boy: Mum, I think I've lost my sunglasses.

Mum: Oh, you had them on when we went swimming in the morning.

Boy: Yes, and then I remember putting them on the back seat when we were driving here.

Mum: Look! They are in the basket, under the carton of juice!

Boy: Oh! How did they get there?

Mum: No idea, but you're lucky they're not broken. Now, get me the sugar from the top shelf, please. It's on special offer this week.

Boy: Here you are.

Tekst 4.

Boy: Hey Jane, have you started your blog yet?

Girl: Yeah, I've actually written a few posts and uploaded some photos, but it's not as easy as I expected. I asked my brother for help, but he's been too busy recently.

Boy: Do you want me to give you a hand with it? I can take care of the technical stuff.

Girl: Really? That would be awesome! Thanks a lot!

A group of students from our local primary school have been invited to France to take part in an international drama competition. They are going to perform their adaptation of "Pinocchio". We really hope they'll win! Next Saturday between 9 a.m. and 12 noon there will be a picnic at the school. We'll be selling lots of home-made food. All the money will be used to pay for the trip. Everyone is warmly invited to attend the event!

Boy: It was last Tuesday. I needed a memory stick so that I could save my homework and I saw one lying on the table in the living room, so I took it and put it into my computer. When I was trying to save my homework, I accidentally deleted some of the files on the stick. Later, it turned out that it was my sister's memory stick and she had some important documents on it. Fortunately, I didn't delete the photos from her birthday party!

Girl: I wanted to learn French so my parents agreed to send me to Paris for a summer course. I found an interesting language school on the internet. My parents also liked it, so I started to fill in the application form. There were a lot of questions and it took ages to answer them. I was just about to do the last one when my computer suddenly turned off. I quickly restarted it, but my answers were not there anymore and I had to start again!

Boy: I had to do a presentation for my science class. I needed some pictures, so I downloaded them from the internet and I added some text. But I didn't remember to save my work before going to the kitchen for a snack. When I came back, I saw that the screen had gone blue. I thought I would have to do the whole presentation all over again but fortunately, the 'AUTOSAVE' option was on so it was still there. I was so happy.

Wypowiedź 4.

Girl: I love staying connected with my friends using my smartphone. One day, while I was running to class, I dropped my phone on the floor by accident. The screen broke into pieces, and I lost access to all my contacts, photos, and important apps. I was so angry with myself because I had to wait two weeks until my phone was fixed.

Hello, guys. My name is Kenny and I will be your guide during our Dublin walks. On both days of your stay in the city we are going to start our walks an hour after the end of your school activities. Which means 1 p.m. today and 2 p.m. tomorrow. Today, we are visiting the amazing Dublin Castle, which is a must-see for all visitors. Then we are going to go to Trinity College. There, we will start in the Old Library, where they keep the Book of Kells. This book was created in the 9th century and is one of the most beautiful books in the world. After leaving the library you will have a chance to walk around the Trinity College area and admire the architecture of the historic buildings. Afterwards you can have a rest in College Park. I will give you the details of our second afternoon together while we are relaxing there. Then I will take you to a nice restaurant in another part of the city where you'll be able to try some local food.
